He called the game "baccara", which translates to "zero", as all tens and face cards were valued at zero (the French spelling "baccara") Tj T* BT /F

Cards were dealt by four dealers, each player could be the banker, and players could place bets against fellow players and against the house.

In today's game there is one dealer, bets are typically placed against the house, and the house also fills in the banker role.

From Italy, baccarat travelled to France, where it was known as Chemin de Fer, or "Chemmy".

King Charles VIII and his noblemen loved the game, and Chemin de Fer remained a hit with the French aristocracy for centuries.

This kind of baccarat is what we now know as "American Baccarat".

Although most places we have been to have free drinks for people while they are actively gambling.

We lost $250 in less than 30 minutes on a nickle slot machine.

I understand Casinos are in the business to make money, but make it so you at least entice your players to stay and gamble more with some wins on occasion. Friendly and do keep the tables cleared off.
