Best Oklahoma Sportsbooks August 2023

While many states have legalized online sports betting or are in the process, Ok lahoma is in limbo.

Oklahoma has 120 casinos run by 33 tribes.

However, Major League Baseball enthusiasts in Oklahoma generally support the Kansas City Royals.

It plays home games at the Kauffman Stadium in Kansas City, the home of the Royals since 1973.

When sportsbooks launch in the state, mobile betting may open up, but there's no timeline on this as of yet.

I got a message yesterday from Booking.com team that they are suspending my property due to violation of Article 7.4 of their contract and termed this to be because of Fake reviews again. I replied to the message asking for proof and even stated that if this illogical allegation turns out to be true, I will not object to anything as after 16th June, 2020 I was monitoring the property myself and there was no chance of any pilferage or such unethical act. After talking to them over the call for over 20 minutes, they said that it is done from the back-end and there is no way to contact them and there is nothing they can do and I will have to sit back and wait.

Due to covid, already the hospitality sector bled the most and still, they went forward and suspended my property. They also claimed that there is a high cancellation rate in my listing. Now, this is because of Booking.com policy. They are to be blamed for this.

Calling us their partner and then behaving in such a way is not justified.

Seriously, either fix the issues or else don't make the property suffer because use of such wrong assumptions and your own inefficient work process.

My contact number is  in case anyone from the Booking.com team wants to reach me regarding this although I am sure the team is already low in number now due to covid scenario and even if it hasn't been so, still they would have not c ared about this. That's their way of functioning.

Its so wrong that property owners have to suffer in this point of time when the industry had just started to revive. Considering the partnership nomenclature, t here should have been certain arbitration or investigation before taking such a serious action
